Many years ago I owned a retail establishment on an Army installation in Georgia. One year many of the troops there had been deployed to Egypt with regard to an extended training exercise. When they came back many of them had been asking me for a fragrance called Secret of the Desert. Their claim was that when they employed this fragrance it actually caused women to become receptive to sexual intercourse. There were so many who claimed that they had used this fragrance and that it had actually worked for them which I established that it was worth looking into.

When i do some research I found this kind of fragrance listed as one of the scented oil perfumes sold by Egyptian vendors. The particular fragrance which was called Secret of the Desert was none other than their particular version of Channel #5. The particular hype was created by the vendors in order to make a lot more sales to the gullible soldiers and the Egyptians utilized sex as a selling application. In light of this I would advise you to be wary of any scented product which promises that it will cause the opposite sex to be attracted to an individual. Fragrance Essential oil Express.
